

Traits of a Disciple of Jesus
Colossians 1:9-20

⁹For this reason, since the day we heard about you, we have not stopped praying for you and asking God to fill you with the knowledge of his will through all spiritual wisdom and understanding. ¹⁰And we pray this in order that you may live a life worthy of the Lord and may please him in every way: bearing fruit in every good work, growing in the knowledge of God, ¹¹being strengthened with all power according to his glorious might so that you may have great endurance and patience, and joyfully ¹²giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the kingdom of light. ¹³For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves, ¹⁴in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

¹⁵He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. ¹⁶For by him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things were created by him and for him. ¹⁷He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. ¹⁸And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy. ¹⁹For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, ²⁰and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross. PRAYER FOCUS: Give Thanks

Our sympathies to Charlie, Barbara & family on the recent death of his mother, Terry Heim.

The altar flowers this week are in thanksgiving for the memories of my loving husband, Nolan Singletary, from Ruth.

“Church “fluffing” Sunday Today at 1:00pm. The beautiful garland needs many hands to fluff it after being wound on spools all year. The precious Chrismon ornaments need unwrapping and placed on tree. Banners to be hung high. Many hands make quick work and gets everyone home for the football games and the pre-Thanksgiving cooking. Beverages will be served.
